School policy statement on equality and community cohesion

Our school is committed to equality both as an employer and a service-provider:

- We try to ensure that everyone is treated fairly and with respect.
- We want to make sure that our school is a safe, secure and stimulating place for everyone.
- We recognise that people have different needs, and we understand that treating people equally does not always involve treating them all exactly the same.
- We recognise that for some pupil’s extra support is needed to help them to achieve and be successful.
- We try to make sure that people from different groups are consulted and involved in our decisions, for example through talking to pupils and parents/carers, and through our School Council.
- We aim to make sure that no-one experiences harassment, less favourable treatment or discrimination because of their age; any disability they may have; their ethnicity, colour or national origin; their gender; their gender identity or reassignment; their marital or civil partnership status; being pregnant or having recently had a baby; their religion or beliefs; their sexual identity and orientation.

We welcome our general duty under the Equality Act 2010 to eliminate discrimination, to advance equality of opportunity and to foster good relations, and our specific duties to publish information every year about our school population; to explain how we have due regard for equality; and to publish equality objectives which show how we plan to tackle particular inequalities, and reduce or remove them.

We also welcome our duty under the Education and Inspections Act 2006 to promote community cohesion.

We welcome the emphasis in the Ofsted inspection framework on the importance of narrowing gaps in achievement which affect, amongst others:

- pupils from certain cultural and ethnic backgrounds
- pupils who belong to low-income households and pupils known to be eligible for free school meals
- pupils who are disabled
- pupils who have special educational needs
- boys in certain subjects, and girls in certain other subjects.

In addition to this short statement, we also have a full school policy statement on equality and community cohesion. Please ask for a copy if you would like to see it.

Part 2: Our main equality challenges

This is a summary of the issues that we are most concerned about.

We are already developing strategies and interventions to tackle some of these concerns.

For some of these issues we have also set and published equality objectives. Details of these are in Part 6 of this document.

- Over the past 5 years we have welcomed various families from diverse backgrounds, including many from Poland, Sri Lanka and The Philippines. The school work hard to understand backgrounds and cultures, to ensure that every child reaches their full potential.

Part 3: How we have due regard for equality

The information provided here aims to show that we give careful consideration to equality issues in everything that we do.

Schools are required to have due regard to the need to eliminate discrimination, harassment and victimisation and other conduct that is prohibited by the Equality Act 2010.

The information below is a summary of how we are aware of this particular requirement and how we respond to it. Please contact us if you would like to see copies of any of our school policies.

- We are aware of the requirements of the Equality Act 2010 that it is unlawful to discriminate, treat some people less fairly or put them at a disadvantage.
- Our governing body is to receive training on the Equality Act 2010. When governors consider equality issues in relation to policies, decisions and services, a record of this is kept in the minutes and papers of governing body meetings.
- We try to keep an accurate record, when possible and appropriate, of the protected characteristics of our pupils and employees.
- We have a school behaviour policy.
- We have a school anti-bullying policy that also includes cyber bullying available on the school website.
- We deal promptly and effectively with all incidents and complaints of bullying and harassment that may include cyber-bullying and prejudice-based bullying related to disability or special educational need, ethnicity and race, gender, gender reassignment, pregnancy or maternity, religion and belief and sexual orientation. We keep a record of all such incidents and notify those affected of what action we have taken. We provide training to all staff in relation to dealing with bullying and harassment incidents.
- We have a special educational needs policy that outlines the provision the school makes for pupils with special educational needs.
- Our admission arrangements are set out in our Admissions Policies. Nursery admissions are dealt with directly by the school. Reception Admissions are in compliance with the Local Authority.
- Our complaints procedure sets out how we deal with any complaints relating to the school.
- We aim to observe and implement the principles of equal opportunities and non-discrimination in our employment practices.
- We have procedures for addressing staff discipline, conduct and grievances.

Under the Equality Act 2010, we are also required to have due regard to the need to advance equality of opportunity and foster good relations. This includes steps we are taking to tackle disadvantages and meet the needs of particular individuals and groups of pupils.

Disability

We are committed to working for the equality of people with and without disabilities.

Summary information (including data on gaps in attainment, inequalities that need to be addressed and relations between different groups of pupils)

- Progress of SEN children is overall positive and continues to be something we are working on. Families continue to be happy with the provision for SEN children and are satisfied with progress. Children are well prepared for secondary school.
- The school continues to maintain the focus on SEN, working to ensure they have provision that is additional to and different from none-SEN children.

How we advance equality of opportunity:

- We have a hearing loop in our school hall.
- We support disabled learners and staff by meeting their individual needs.
- We take steps (reasonable adjustments) to ensure that the disabled pupils are not put at a disadvantage compared with other pupils. This includes in our ELSA (Emotional Literacy Support Assistant) programme carried out by a specialist Teaching Assistant who has had experience and training in supporting children's emotional and social development.
- We have appointed a mental health professional as part of a Deanery project.
- We involve disabled learners, their families and disabled staff in the changes and improvements we make and consult them on issues affecting them, rather than relying on people acting on their behalf.
- We carry out accessibility planning for disabled pupils that increases the extent to which they can participate in the curriculum, improves the physical environment of the school and increased the availability of accessible information to disabled pupils.
- We have improved access to our classrooms with fire doors and ramps. This ensures that learning can start very quickly and that opportunities for progress are maximised.
- We have installed flashing lights to support fire alarm bells in some areas of the school.

How we foster good relations and promote community cohesion:

- The school frequently participate in learning opportunities with Perseid Special School, supporting events and staff training. We support the Handicapped Children's Pilgrimage Trust and have attended Paralympic events.
- We are developing a curriculum that supports all pupils to understand, respect and value difference and diversity.
- We enable all pupils to learn about the experiences of disabled people and the discriminatory attitudes they often experience.
- We ensure that the curriculum has positive images of disabled people.
- We tackle bullying or harassment on the basis of special educational need or disability.
- We tackle prejudice and any incidents of bullying based on disability.

What has been the impact of our activities? What do we plan to do next?

- Children with the range of needs feel confident, happy and safe in school and make good progress. Recent access improvement to classrooms has ensured that children are well prepared for learning in school.

Ethnicity and race (including EAL learners)

We are committed to working for the equality of all ethnic groups.

Summary information (including performance against national and local benchmarks, data on gaps in attainment, inequalities that need to be addressed and relations between different groups of pupils)

- Children for whom English is an additional language make strong progress against the National Average and other schools in a similar context.
- We aim to meet the challenges in relation to Black African Tamil and Filipino pupil's attainment, progress and participation (e.g. attendance) of these particular groups of pupils. These pupils tend to go on trips to their homelands for long periods, which can affect their attendance.
- We consistently involve and consult pupils, families and communities from different ethnic and cultural backgrounds on issues that might affect pupil achievement and wellbeing.

How we advance equality of opportunity:

- We monitor the attainment and progress of all our pupils by ethnicity.
- We set targets and address barriers to the participation of particular groups in learning and other activities.
- We host parent and child sessions which improve learning behaviours. The school have run ESOL classes along with another local school to promote these.
- We also host specific workshops for EAL parents. Most recently for Tamil families.

- The Governing Body consists of people from a range of cultures.
- We are developing particular initiatives and interventions to improve outcomes for particular groups (e.g. White British).
- We involve parents, carers and families in initiatives and interventions to improve outcomes for particular groups.
- We link with groups, organisations and projects in the local community, holding Multi Cultural/International Evenings linked with the Church.

- The school has maintained extremely high standards of progress and attainment for children from ethnic minority groups over the past 5 years.

Gender

We are committed to working for the equality of women and men.

Summary information (including performance against national and local benchmarks, data on gaps in attainment, inequalities that need to be addressed and relations between different groups of pupils)

- The school have worked hard over the past 5 years to improve attainment for boys who now perform above the National Average in all phases overall.

How we advance equality of opportunity:

- We monitor the attainment of all our pupils by gender.
- We take a “Which boys? Which girls?” approach to address underachievement; neither boys nor girls are treated as homogeneous groups.
- We set targets to improve the attainment and rates of progress in particular groups of boys and girls.
- We are identifying and addressing barriers to the participation of boys and girls in activities.
- We ensure that gender stereotypes in subject choices, careers advice and work experience are avoided.
- We ensure that young people have access to information about difference sector workplaces and occupations to challenge outdated images and ideas about careers and employment.
- We are developing particular initiatives to tackle boys’ attitudes to school and learning for example, by engaging with fathers and drawing them into school life. We also encourage mothers to come into school to work with girls.

- Parents, carers and families are given opportunities to contribute to the development, delivery and evaluation of the school's gender equality initiatives.
- Both male and female parents and carers are encouraged to be involved in the work of the school and contribute to their children's learning and progress, including separated families.

How we foster good relations and promote community cohesion:

- Girls progress in many areas including Maths and Science, are improving due to a consistent focus on teaching styles and strategies. We have learned much from our secondary schools, Ursuline High School and Wimbledon College and feel that boys and girls are both well equipped to channel their potential when they reach Year 6.
- The school run a huge amount of extra-curricular activities. Attendance at these clubs is equal amongst boys and girls,
- We ensure we respond to any sexist bullying or sexual harassment in line with the school policies.
- We encourage pupils to develop an understanding of the experiences of different genders in society and challenge sexism and negative stereotypes.
- Ensuring the inclusion of positive, non-stereotypical images of women and men, girls and boys across the curriculum.

What has been the impact of our activities? What do we plan to do next?

- As stated above boys' attainment has improved over the past few years. The school recognise the need for improved attainment for girls at higher levels in maths. Work has already begun to establish why girls feel less confident in maths at higher levels, through extended work with the Catholic Deanery.

Gender identity or reassignment

We are committed to ensuring that pupils and staff who are proposing to undergo, are undergoing or have undergone a process to reassign their sex, are protected from discrimination and harassment.

We will regularly review the progress we are making to meet our equality objectives.

Equality objective 1:

To ensure that we meet the needs of a growing number of non-English speaking families – particularly in the Early Years.

Equality objective 2:

To ensure that the school's core values and British values underpin our actions as a school community.
